Back to School!

Modern school calendars put most kids back to school in August. Growing up, however, we always started school the day after the Labor Day Holiday, so September will always mean back to school for me. Back to School meant plaid dresses on layaway at Kmart, new shoes and socks, as well as freshly sharpened pencils, bright clean crayons, packages of manila drawing paper and, of course, a red plaid book satchel to carry it all. First day of school lunch had its own traditions. Throughout my life, it was always a bologna and cheese sandwich with lots of mayonnaise, a dill pickle, Lays potato chips and green grapes. Even now, this is my favorite “comfort” meal.

What were some of your first day of school traditions? Did you walk to school, ride your bike or catch a bus? Maybe you were lucky enough to be a car rider. However you got there, hopefully school holds fond memories that you are able to pass on to your kids and grandkids.

This month’s Houston Chapter Buzzard Meeting is on Sunday, September 11. Join us out at Copperfield for a fun social time with just a little competition built in.

August Meeting Minutes

The latest gathering of the Houston flock was on August 14 at Delmar. I was not able to attend the meeting, so did not take down the minutes. Roger Moon took down the minutes, but for the sake of accuracy and completeness, I would like to review his notes with him before reporting. Rather than hold up the newsletter and until we can get together, I’ll put the report in the October newsletter.
